The Theme of the 1976 Jr.-Sr. Banquet and Prom

Happiness is sucking your thumb!

Wearing a dress that hits my ankles,
Shoes that make me six feet tall,
Towering above my five-foot date,
But listen, people, that's not all.
A bright corsage that falls off a lot
And boutonniere pins that poke you,
Shiny shoes and bow tie tux
And awkward jokes that soak you.
A car shined bright with Turtle Wax
And windows washed with Windex,
Smothered out by ammonia fumes
To make my evening more complex.
The prom doors open to a wonderland
Of angel's hair, streamers and glitter,
Although you know on clean-up day
This wonderland's turned to litter.
The lights are out when you get home,
And to the door you stumble,
You think, "Of course the kiss will work" -
The lights burst on, you fumble.

Mike and Lisa are mooning!

Sherry and Jerry - the cutest couple.

Jeff and Patti sit by the sweet-heart tree.

Doesn't anyone dance?

Mike, at a loss for words?

Miss Rogers Retires After 37 Years at L.C.

Miss Charlsy Rogers retired this year from a thirty-nine year teaching career. Thirty-seven of those years were spent in the elementary school at the Leverett's Chapel Independent School District. Miss Rogers taught for two years at Mt. Enterprise before joining the L.C. faculty in 1939. She has taught third, fourth, and fifth grades.

Miss Rogers is well remembered for her artistic ability and ingenuity. We wish her well in her retirement.
